

Notes of a Week in Society and Fraternal Circles of District

Reception for Mrs. Barkdoll

Mrs. Harry Barkdoll, Past Master of Pearl Chapter No. 6, Order of Eastern Star, was the guest of honor at a gathering of members of Pearl Chapter and a few intimate friends of Mrs. Barkdoll at the Club rooms in Masonic Temple on Wednesday evening. The occasion was a farewell reception tendered Mrs. Barkdoll on the eve of her departure for Globe to make her future home. During the evening there was rendition of a musical program that proved very pleasing and enjoyable. Ice cream and cake accompanied a social hour. Presentation of beautiful cut glass pieces in a cream pitcher and sugar bowl to Mrs. Barkdoll was a feature of the evening that was attended by remarks by Past Grand Patron H. M. Woods which in their expression of the high esteem in which associate members of the order hold her and the regret with which the community at large parted with her presence, very well told the feeling of all. Mrs. Barkdoll in acceptance responded in manner which further endeared her to the hearts of her friends. The musical program of the evening was very decidedly worthy of the occasion, each participant winning applause that was extended. It follows:

Piano Selection, Misses Snell, Patton, Vocal Solo, Mrs. Harry Barker, Obliviate, Mr. Gilbert Maston, Violin Solo, Miss Lois Wilson, Reading, Mary Kathryn Salmon, Piano Solo, Misses Snell, Patton, Vocal Solo, Mrs. Gladys Markness, Piano Selection, Miss Lois Wilson.

Luncheon

Mrs. R. B. Coover was the hostess on Saturday at an elegantly appointed three course luncheon.

May Day Dance

Typical May Day decorations transformed Odd Fellows Hall into a lower fit for a fairy's dance last Friday evening, the occasion being the May Day dance given by the ladies of St. John's Guild. Delicately gowned ladies added the finishing touch to the fairy picture, and Brenna's orchestra furnished the music to which sixty seven couples happily "tripped the light fantastic." Fruit punch was served in the intervals between the dances. A large number of the guests responded to the invitations sent out by the ladies, and the evening was a success artistically, socially, and financially. The young men of the church interested themselves in the affair, and rendered the ladies valuable assistance with their wives and friends to the dancing hall where they held a reception. There were special decorations in both the church and hall, and at the church services the regular choir had prepared special music for the occasion. The hall was most beautifully decorated in the emblems of the order, commingled with garlands of greenery and electric lights. On the tables, which seated four each, were bouquets of cut flowers. Prof. C. F. Philbrook of cut flowers, a number of the members responded to impromptu toasts. Several selections by the High School Glee Club, and a trombone solo by Gilbert Maston interspersed the speeches. The guests were served by the members of the Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Marie Bartlett.

A number of guests were expected by auto from Douglas, but were prevented from attending by the high wind which prevailed on Thursday evening. There were about one hundred guests present, and Bisbee Knights Templar Ascension Day celebration will long be remembered as an enjoyable one.

Parliamentary League

The Bisbee Women's Parliamentary League is a new organization formed for the study of the questions of the day, and also to study Parliamentary law. Now that the responsibility of having a voice in the affairs of the country has been given women, many of them feel it a duty to educate themselves along the lines of political economy, hence all over the nation they are forming leagues such as this one. Although the local league is less than a week old, it numbers already sixteen members, with Mrs. E. J. Flannigan, Bisbee's member of the Arizona Equal Suffrage Central Committee as chairman pro tem, Mrs. A. E. Hurst as recording secretary pro tem, and Mrs. F. R. Reynolds as corresponding secretary pro tem. It is hoped that every woman in the district will show an active interest in this movement.

A Splendid Work

One of the institutions of which Bisbee is justly proud is that embracing the good work done by the Charity Committee of the Board of Trade. Many of the women's clubs of the city co-operate with this committee by buying and making clothing for the needy, when cases are reported to them by Miss Esther Cummings, the Charity Committee's efficient secretary.

NEW MODEL FROM JEROME OF PARIS

Parisian designers have been vying with each other this season in unusual and attractive gowns. The competition has been the keener because of the lack of ideas from Bularis and the East.

One of the daintiest and most tasteful of the lot, unique and not possessed of hot little sensuality is this draped gown of blue crepe from the shop of Jerome, the famous Parisian modiste. The draped skirt and semi-trunk are to be noted as characteristic of the season's fashion trend. The most small buttons serving as trimmings are also a feature of the ruling idea.

retary and investigator. Thus do the members of these women's clubs and other citizens, too, realize that the best of charity is the personal service given, not what we give, but what we share, for the gift without the giver is bare; who gives himself with his gift feeds three, himself his hungering neighbor, and Me, says the Christ to Sir Lancelot in Lowell's well-known poem. Such personal service helps the neighbor and at the same time compels one to know conditions, and knowing them to find some remedy.

During the past month the amount expended by the Charity Committee of the Board of Trade in helping destitute families and individuals was session on Thursday afternoon in the parlors of the Knights of Columbus Club House. It was decided to postpone the proposed card party indefinitely. A membership contest was inaugurated. Mrs. Frank Duval being chosen captain for one side, Mrs. J. Greeley for the other. This contest will close a month hence, when the losing side will entertain the winners, and the new members, the nature of the entertainment to be decided upon by the hostess.

Elks Dance

The Elks will be hosts at a dancing party in their hall on the evening of Friday the ninth. The proceeds of the entertainment are to be devoted to the Play ground fund.

Successful Contest

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon. The most marked the close of their membership contest, and was given over to a general good time and jubilation over the successful issue. Forty new members were acquired by the society by this contest. A few of them are gentlemen who are taken in as honorary members, but most of them are active members. The Reds won, and they and the new members will be the guests of the yellow, the losers, on next Thursday evening at a banquet which will be given in Social ments which form an integral part of every proper party.

LUNCHEON AND BRIDGE

Mrs. Rawie Coover entertained in her usual charming manner at her home on Mason Hill yesterday afternoon. At 1:30 a delightful luncheon was served. The menu included salads, cold meats, hot potatoes and biscuits, coffee, ice cream and cake all very daintily served. Following the luncheon the twenty guests repaired to tables arranged for bridge, where a couple of hours were most enjoyably passed. Mrs. High won the prize, a beautiful cut glass tumbler. Her guests departed late in the afternoon with memory of an exceedingly pleasant afternoon with a very delightful hostess.

The case of the little fifteen year old girl in behalf of a man in the city was arrested on a statutory charge as reported in this paper yesterday was investigated by Miss Cummings as soon as reported. It was found that the Charity Committee had aided the same family some three years ago, when the father deserted them, leaving the mother with a tiny baby. The secretary took them clothing last week ordered substantial food, and sent a woman to clean the house, this being all possible at this time.

Suicide Party

John Claybourne Huhla, a well known and popular on Wednesday afternoon to see about sixteen of his friends and schoolmates, march into his home and take possession, when he recovered somewhat from his surprise, he noticed that they all had their Sunday clothes on, and then he realized that this was a party, a really truly party, and that it was a party in his honor. Then John Claybourne rose to the occasion and took his guests out on the lawn, where they played games and had a royal good time. After a while John Claybourne's mother served refreshments, for a little boys' party (or even a big boys' party or even a shrill one) would be as stale, flat and unprofitable as the play of Hamlet without Hamlet. Guests of the afternoon were Beatrice McKay, Inez Boelo, Lottie Young, Jane Young, Lena Brunham, Maggie Molino, Dorothy Jacobs, Lena George Brown, James Carretto, Ivan Gale, John Vickers, Roy Okerstrom and Leonard Smith.

Fourteen young ladies and gentlemen, friends of Evan Wilds resolved themselves into a surprise party and made Mr. Wilds the guest of honor in his own home last Tuesday evening. The young ladies brought the refresh-

GRAY HAIR TURNS ITS NATURAL COLOR AFTER APPLYING SAGE TEA

Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens Beautifully and Takes Off Dandruff

Almost every one knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also cures dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By adding at my drug store for the ready-to-use product—called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy"—you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents.

Some druggists make their own but its usually too sticky, so insist upon getting "Wyeth's" which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is the best remedy for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and to stop falling hair.

Folks like "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur" because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly, says a well known downtown druggist. You dampen a sponge or wash and draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. Take require but a few moments, by morning the gray hair disappears and after another application or two is restored to its natural color and looks even more beautiful and glossy than ever.—Adv.

Five thousand employees, mostly young girls in the silk throwing mills of the Lockwood valley in Pennsylvania, are closer to higher wages as a result of a conference between a committee of the Pennsylvania Silk Association and the representatives of the Central Labor Union, headed by Mrs. Sarah Conboy.

It is expected that at a future conference a uniform wage scale will be adopted, providing for an increase of wages of from 10 to 25 per cent.
